Dear Mr. Klaas:

People's Advocate PAC and California English Campaign will endorse candidates running for the California State Senate this June. We plan to let our members and other voters in your district know whom we support.

The first step in making our endorsement is your completing the attached candidates' issue survey. Please complete and mail it back to us by April 20th. By May 1st, we will let you know if you have received our endorsement.

The second step is to mail us a list of the newspapers, television and radio stations or any other organizations you would like us to notify if you receive our endorsement of your candidacy.

The third step is to mail us a copy of your biography, along with a picture of yourself. The fourth, and final, step, is to put us on your mailing to list to receive press releases and campaign material.

Sincerely yours,

Carl Burton
